Executive Assistant Brandy Rea's advice for someone joining One Energy: "Just keep challenging yourself. This is the perfect place to grow in your role and as a person. If you want to know how to do it, then learn it."

"I like to bake. I do it when I'm stressed out. What stinks is that nobody in my house eats sweets, so I've tried to back away from baking because I don't want to be the only person eating a whole cake.

My house actually burned down when I was in 6th grade, and I know this sounds crazy, but it was the best thing that ever happened to me. I believe everything happens for a reason - and the fire was why we ended up moving back to Findlay.

After graduating, I worked at the Bistro on Main for about 10 years and then heard about One Energy through Sam, the owner. When I first started, I don't think anyone really knew what I was going to be doing. So we all sat down together and came up with the title 'Associate' knowing my role was going to grow. Now, being an executive assistant to [CFO] Lynn kind of puts things in perspective for me and I'm really involved, which is great, because I'm the type of person who wants to know everything about what I'm doing and why I'm doing it. Everything happens for a reason!"
